Minutes:

CAROL MEYER, Supervisor of Business Services, reported that the applicant, who was present, met the criteria to be considered for temporary approval. She suggested approval as recommended.

SANFORD FELD stated he had received approval from State of Nevada on December 18, 2008. He noted that the State had performed a thorough investigation and suggested that the City could save money by accepting the State's recommendation as other Valley entities do, instead of requiring an additional investigation.

MAYOR GOODMAN thanked MR. FELD for his suggestion, but explained that the City preferred to trust the judgment of its staff.
